

Nomura Greentech hires Keith Tauro as Managing Director to lead the Advanced Materials and Chemicals practice

September 12, 2022

Nomura Greentech is pleased to announce that Keith Tauro has joined the firm as a Managing Director

Based in New York, Keith will lead the Advanced Materials and Chemicals practice in the U.S. and help the firm enhance its well-established sustainability coverage efforts.

Keith has specialized in Advanced Materials and Chemicals over the last 15 years, with transaction experience across M&A, public / private equity and debt capital raises, restructuring and board advisory, with a recent focus on strategic pathways for NextGenChem and AgBioTech companies. Previously, Keith was at Evercore and Barclays.

Jeff McDermott, Global Co-head of Investment Banking at Nomura and founder of Nomura Greentech said, "Advanced Materials and Chemicals is in an exciting growth phase and a key priority for Nomura Greentech. Keith is a well-respected banker with broad experience across these sectors and we are excited to welcome him to the firm."

Keith Tauro said, "I am delighted to be joining Nomura Greentech, the clear leader across the sustainable technology spectrum. Innovation in Advanced Materials and Chemicals is accelerating at a rapid rate and Nomura Greentech is perfectly positioned to capitalize on any changes."
